What are the ways of marketing on YouTube

There are several ways to help you market the content of your YouTube channel, including You may be interested in reading our guide to professionally photographing your store's products

First: Make videos about the most searched keywords

To ensure the success of your YouTube channel marketing campaign, you must choose the most searched words to reach your target audience easily through the following tools

Keyword Planner

It is one of the most popular tools used to identify the most frequently used keywords, and it is a free method

Keyword Tool

It is also an effective tool that enables you to identify the relevant tags for your video

“Tube buddy”

Tube Buddy is a software extension for Chrome browser that offers many features and features to manage the channel, create videos, and shorten time and effort, and one of its most important features

Shortening the time through ready responses, which is very important for owners of channels that receive a lot of comments

They are pre-written comments so that you can press on them quickly instead of copying them

Ease of use

Easily choose keywords

You can subscribe for free for 14 days

Second: Employ the keywords “Keywords” with titles, descriptions, and tags

After extracting the appropriate words for your marketing topic through the aforementioned tools, you must put these words and include them in the video title and descriptive phrases

It is recommended that the video title should not exceed 70 characters in order for it to appear fully in the search results

Third: Pay attention to the quality of your videos

YouTube requires its users to create a high-quality video so that visitors stay to the end of the video to achieve higher results for YouTube and thus profit for you

If the video quality is not clear and the sound is weak, the visitor will not stay long and will not complete the content

Therefore, you must make sure of the quality of the tools used before you start shooting so that you do not incur losses later

Fourth: Using Thumbnails

It is the image that the viewer sees at first glance and decides to open the video or not. It must be as attractive as possible and be chosen carefully

It is preferable that the image size be at least (640 * 360) pixels, and make sure that the image is of high quality and clear

Fifth: improve the description

One of the most important factors that attract visitors is the descriptive paragraph that describes the content of the video. The more interesting and attractive the description, the more visitors it will attract to open and spread it faster

But you must pay attention that the description is true to what the video actually contains and not just to attract attention because it will lead to counterproductive results

The description must contain the keywords for SEO

Sixth: Choose the titles carefully

When choosing a title, you must choose a short and distinctive title so that it appears complete, be as interesting and attractive as possible, and include the keywords that you extracted previously

It is recommended that it be in the form of a question because visitors often use the question in search engines

Seventh: Use your circle of acquaintances in marketing your channel at the beginning

In the beginning, of course, you will not have many visitors, so you can resort to your circle of friends and relatives to promote you at first

Eighth: Integration with other platforms

Marketing a YouTube channel on social media

Social media marketing is possible as the use of different platforms varies between visitors according to their country, environment and culture

You can market your channel through other social media such as Facebook, Instagram, Pinterest, Snapchat and others to reach the largest number of target audience

Ninth: Take advantage of “Trends”

Trending trend, “Trend” means the emergence of a certain trend for a period of time and a large number of people follow this trend, you can take advantage of the emergence of these trends

By including the audience of these trends in your video content

Tenth: Take advantage of the live broadcast

The “Live” feature is one of the most important ways to increase the credibility of your audience for the product or service you are promoting

This is because the content is not modified with montage or effects, but the content is displayed without improvements

Eleventh: Prepare the channel professionally

What is meant here is the presence of everything the user is looking for within the channel, the possibility of smooth navigation within the channel, and the clarity of sound and image

So that the user can feel comfortable and enjoy while watching

Twelfth: Include your brand in all your videos

Of course, including the brand in every video is critical to fixing your content in the mind of the recipient and remembering your activity once you see the brand
